OUTLAW STRIKERS SOON BACK TO WORK

Temporary Embargo on Freight at Potomac Yards

LESS THAN 200 OUT

Many of Men Already Back on Job—Things Running in Good Shape Say Yard Officials.

At 3 o'clock this afternoon at the Potomac yards it was stated that everything is running in good condition and freight is being moved with rapidity and that a majority of the men are back on the job. Others who quit last night are expected back late this afternoon.

The strike among the yardmen and machinists at the Potomac railroad yards north of Alexandria is not general and the yards are not so badly crippled by the walkout of the men said official at the yards today.

Out of about sixty yardmen composing the day crew twenty returned to work this morning and reports from the yards are to the effect that others are expected in later.

At the yards this morning it was stated that the employees are getting out all of the freight in the yards, but until conditions are normal they are not taking in any freght.

There are at present 60 cars of perishable freight at the yards and about 1487 cars of freight that is not perishable. The latter, however, is not due to the walkout, being about the normal number of cars left over and this to being moved as rapidly as possible it was stated at the yards today. Approximately 4,000 cars are handled daily at Potomac Yards.

The workout occurred at 10 o'clock last night and the men composing this shift went to work at 4 o'clock in the afternoon and were supposed to work until midnight. As stated above a part of the day crew is at work, at least one-third of the men.

The men are today in conference with Superintendent Robert Colvin and it is expected that a satisfactory adjustment will be reached whereby the men will return to work this evening.

The total number of men out is reported to be less than 200.

A conference was held at noon today between H. M. Cousins, general chairman of the R. F. P., trainmen's union; C. W. Culp, superintendent of transportation and R. M. Colvin, superintendent of the yards. The result of the conference was not announced, although it is stated there is every indication of an early return of the men to work.

A number of the strikers when seen today by a representative of the Gazette declared that there were reasons for striking was that they are getting tired of being trifled with on the new wage scale asked for. They added that they want the matter adjourned without further delay.

The Richmond Fredericksburg and Potomac Railroad this afternoon announced that they are accepting freight on their own line.

WILL TALK TO DELEGATES

Wilson's Message by Telephone Will Be Heard in Convention

San Francisco, June 24.—President Wilson will open the Democratic national convention here next Monday over the telephone from Washington, and personally will deliver a message to the delegates, it is learned.

The President's voice will be made audible to the delegates and galleries by the use of an electrical attachment known as the magnavox, which magnifies the voice many hundred times.

Plans for this feature of the opening session of the convention were under way today by the committee on arrangements.

What the President's message to the convention will be is not known, but it has, it is reported, been discussed already over the telephone with Homer Cummings, national chairman.

WOMAN STRIKES NEGRO

Hurls Pitcher in Face of Man Who Follows Her to Room

Chased to her bedroom, and cornered by a giant negro, Mrs. Alma Smith, 934 C Street, southwes,, Washington, finally drove him off by felling him with a stone water pitcher. The pitcher, seized from a washstand, struck the negro square in the face, temporarily stunning him, when he recovered, he fled.

Mrs. Smith, who describes her assailant as a light skinned mulatto, said she found him prowling about in her kitchen. When she asked him what he was doing, he lunged at her. She fled upstairs, and the negro followed. He finally penned her in a corner of her bedroom where, as a last resort, she snatched the water pitcher and hurled it at him.

FIGHTING RENEWED IN LONDONDERRY

One Hundred Persons Reported Killed or Wounded

BODIES IN STREETS

Terrific Conflict Still in Full Swing—Sinn Feiners Making Steady Headway—General Paralysis in Ireland

London, June 24.—One hundred persons were killed or wounded in the fighting yesterday, according to semiofficial information, and terrific fighting is still in full swing. A strong army of Sinn Feiners is making steady headway upon the center of the town.

This latest note has sent grave alarm through government circles. Premier Lloyd George conferred with Sir Nevil Marcready and others yesterday afternoon and evening, not only on the Londonberry situation, but on the general paralysis that is creeping over teh rest of Ireland as the result of the continued refusal of the railway men to transport troops, police or supplies for the army of occupation.

The premier is confronted with the necessity of fulfilling his threat to shut down all Irish railroads and thus risk the precipitation of the bloodiest civil war in the island's history.

Five Sinn Feiners were killed by a machine gun in a Londonderry street last night, according to a late dispatch. Armored cars are used by Ulsterites to rescue Protestants from Sinn Feln districts. Magistrates of many towns in County Londonderry joined in a resolution today denouncing the government's assurance that the forces now in the county are adequate for the protection of the inhabitants.

Archbishop Logue, primate of all Ireland, said in a speech at May Nooth last night:

"I have received a death warning, though I have never been a politician."

(Note—Archbishop Logue in recent months has repeatedly denounced the methods of British administration in Ireland, but has declared his uneqivocal opposition to Ireland's secession from the empire.)

Shouts and party cries fill the air amid the steady crack of the rifles. The Uniomists yell:

"No Popery!" (A reference to the Catholics.)

"To hell with the king!" comes the answer from the Nationalists.

Looters were out in swarms all day, smashing windows and robbing jewelry and other stores of tens of thousands of dollars worth of wares.

Autoist Held Up

Edward Yantis and Young Woman Companion Stopped by Youthful Bandits

Held up at the point of a pistol by five young white highwaymen was the experience of Edward C. Yantis, of 617 North Columbus street, while driving his automobile to this city at 8:45 o'clock last night while at Russell road and Lloyd lane, just north of this city.

Yantis pulled his pistol and rather than use it on account of the young woman with whom he was with becoming hysterical, he instead drove to police headquarters and reported the affair. That his weapon awed the men was evident from the fact that they made no further effort to stop him. Mr. Yantis, who is employed at Potomac yards, says he would be able to identify two of the men, whose aged ranged from 17 to 22 years.

Policemen Magner and Morris accompanied by Edward Wells, made a trip to the scene in an automobile but were unable to find any trace of the men.

LIQUOR QUESTION AT SAN FRANCISCO

Personal Liberty Slogan for Rallying Anti-Bone Drys

ANTI-BONE DRY ISSUE

Cabinet Members Known to Have Hand in Move; Convention Fight Due.

San Francisco, June 24.—A volunteer construction corps of platform builders was busy yesterday whittling planks they believed would express the views of the Democratic National Convention as to prohibition.

Leaders, including Chairman Cummings of the National Committee, were in agreement that this question would monopolize the center of the convention stage until it was settled. Mr. Cummings expressed the opinion that it would be the only issue to be carried to the convention floor.

Informal discussion by delegates shows several school of thought among the anti-bone dry advocates as to how the question should be approached. They vary from the states rights stand taken by Governor Edwards of New Jersey, to proposals that Congress be urged to proceed directly toward modifying the one-half of one per cent alcoholic restriction of the Volstead enforcement act so as to lift the ban from beers and light wines.

The most pronounced movement at the moment, however, and the one which appeared to have taken the most definite shape was that originating in Washington and designed to offer a basis on which anti-bone dry forces could concentrate personal liberty will be the slogan of advocates of this compromise plank.

Mr. Cummings was emphatic in defining the question to be solved as not a prohibition issue, but merely expression of the party's attitude as to the Volstead Enforcement act. There were numerous other issues on which there would be difference of opinion before the Resolutions Committee, Mr. Cummings thought, including profiteering, the industrial plank, touching relations between capital and labor, the Irish question and others, but no present prospect that they could not be harmonized in committee.

A minority report is to be expected only on the so-called "beer plank," Mr. Cummings agreed, and that will throw the fight into the convention itself.

The Washington enforcement plank was drafted in circles in close touch with the administration. It is understood to have been drawn from the personal liberty angle and to advocate in general terms a liberalization of the Volstead act. Specific mention of wine, beer or any other beverage by name was omitted.

The plank will be put forward as representing the opinion of many Senators and Representatives, and its framers hope to be able to claim for it the backing of President Wilson himself. It was drawn after conference in which more than one member of the Cabinet shared, it was said, and in which anti-bone dry Senators took a leading part.

Avoidance of specific mention of beverages, proponents of the Washington plank argued, and an appeal for an enforcement policy more in harmony with American ideas of personal liberty would serve to prevent alienation of sentiment which a more direct approach might push into the bone-dry ranks.

K. OF C. MINSTRELS TONIGHT

When the curtain rises at 8:15 this evening at the Lyceum, the efforts for the past two months of the members of the K. of C. Minstrel troupe will be transformed into tangible results.

Starting about two months back to produce the "greatest laugh producer ever staged in Alexandria," the director of the minstrels and the minstrel group have worked untiringly in their efforts to prepare a production that would ever live in the memories of those witnessing it. To attain this end, neither expense nor effort has been spared. The interior of the Lyceum Hall will tonight and tomorrow night present an appearance that well reflects credit upon the skill of Mr. Munch, who is in the charge of this particular work. The impressive background of the minstrels, aided by hundreds of incandescent lights, will stand out as the most unique setting bat any local amateur groupe has ever presented to the public of this community.

The merits of the show have been heralded so often and so fully that naught remains but for the citizens of Alexandria to be present and let their receptive minds joyfully absorb the strains of humor, comedy, music and talent that will flow in unrestrained measures from the stage of the Lyceum this evening and tomorrow evening.

$1,000,000 FIRE

Blaze Sweeps 7-Story Building in Baltimore and Threatens Four Others

Baltimore, June 24.—Starting within several hundred feet of where the great fire of 1904, which wiped out Baltimore's business district, flames early yesterday morning practically wrecked the seven-story building at 37 Hopkins place, and quickly spread to four other structures.

DANGEROUS POTIONS

The Gazette has several times recently called attention to the fact that certain intoxicants which are being sold in Alexandria are extremely dangerous, and that persons who will drink had better take warning. It was necessary a few days ago to send a man to the Alexandria Hospital while suffering from the effects of drinking dangerous liquids. It is an ordinary occurrence to take bottles of denatured alcohol from the pockets of drunken men taken up by the police. The fact that the word "Poison" is printed upon the bottles does not seem to deter dipsomaniacs from drinking from the same.

Many years ago when the French were fighting the Tunisians the latter poisoned the wells as they retreated before the invaders. The French troops suffered terribly from thirst in that torrid climate, but when they reached a well they found it placarded "Poisoned" and guarded by French soldiers in order to protect their comrades. The latter, however, frantic from the tortures of thirst, asked to be allowed to drink, willing to die if permitted to do so. Certain men, long addicted to drink, seem to be as much bereft of reason as the unfortunate French soldiers, and unhesitatingly drink from bottles marked "Poison" over which word are cross bones and skulls.

DISCIPLES OF JACK SHEPPARD

The freak of a party of boys who had the temerity to hold up and point a pistol at a man who was seated in an automobile with a lady early last night almost on the confines of the city of Alexandria was reported to the station house in this city. Several officers repaired to the scene, but the would be footpads could not be found.

Heretofore negroes have figured as highwaymen between this city and Washington. The example set by the rash white youths may be followed by others until one or more of such incorrigibles "hold the wrong man and are cut down as warnings to others who may be inspired by the lives of Jonathan Wild, Paul Clifford, "Blueskin" and other worthies who at one time figured in old England.

Numbers of burglaries which have been committed in Alexandria in past years have been attributed to boys. It will be remembered, a boy not over twelve years old, was found several years ago to be a housebreaker, he having in the night time forced his way into King street stores and taken articles therefrom.

The last burglary reported to the police was that of a King street store within two squares of the station house. The police arrested a seventeen-year-old negro boy who has a reform school record as the perpetrator of the act, and he confessed the crime.

The state is doing everything possible to rescue the young and thoughtless from the broad road to destruction, and the present juvenile laws have been framed with that purpose in view, but incorrigibility seems to be on the increase notwithstanding such statutes and the efforts of good people in our midst to save the young.

OUR DUMB ANIMALS

People residing on Seminary Hill and vicinity complain of the want of watering troughs in that locality. They say that at present there is virtually none from Bailey's Cross Roads to Alexandria. Some time ago one trough existed which was a great desideratum. This, however, for want of proper care, has been allowed to fill up and become useless, and at present persons having carriages are compelled to ask the indulgence of private parties for the purpose of watering their horses while en route to Alexandria or Washington.

A publication known as "Our Dumb Animals" is often sent to this office. It is an interesting periodical, especially to those who own animals of any description. It would be well for the authorities of Arlington and Fairfax counties to read this production as it would incite their interest in the lower specimens of creation and doubtless cause them to consider the welfare of the patient beasts attached to vehicles.

RICHMOND THEATRE

When the reviewers start to count up the big successes of this year which for pure novelty, interesting story and top notch direction, have landed in the very first rank of the season's productions, they, undoubtedly, will have to include "Girl of the Sea," and place it pretty near the top. For this unusual drama not only contains all these elements but as a high educational value as well.

The picture which comes to the Richmond today is a stirring story of love and intrigue both under and above the sea. This sounds peculiar, but it is a fact, for the scenes were not only taken on the beautiful islands of the West Indies, but on the ocean bed where considerable of the action takes place.

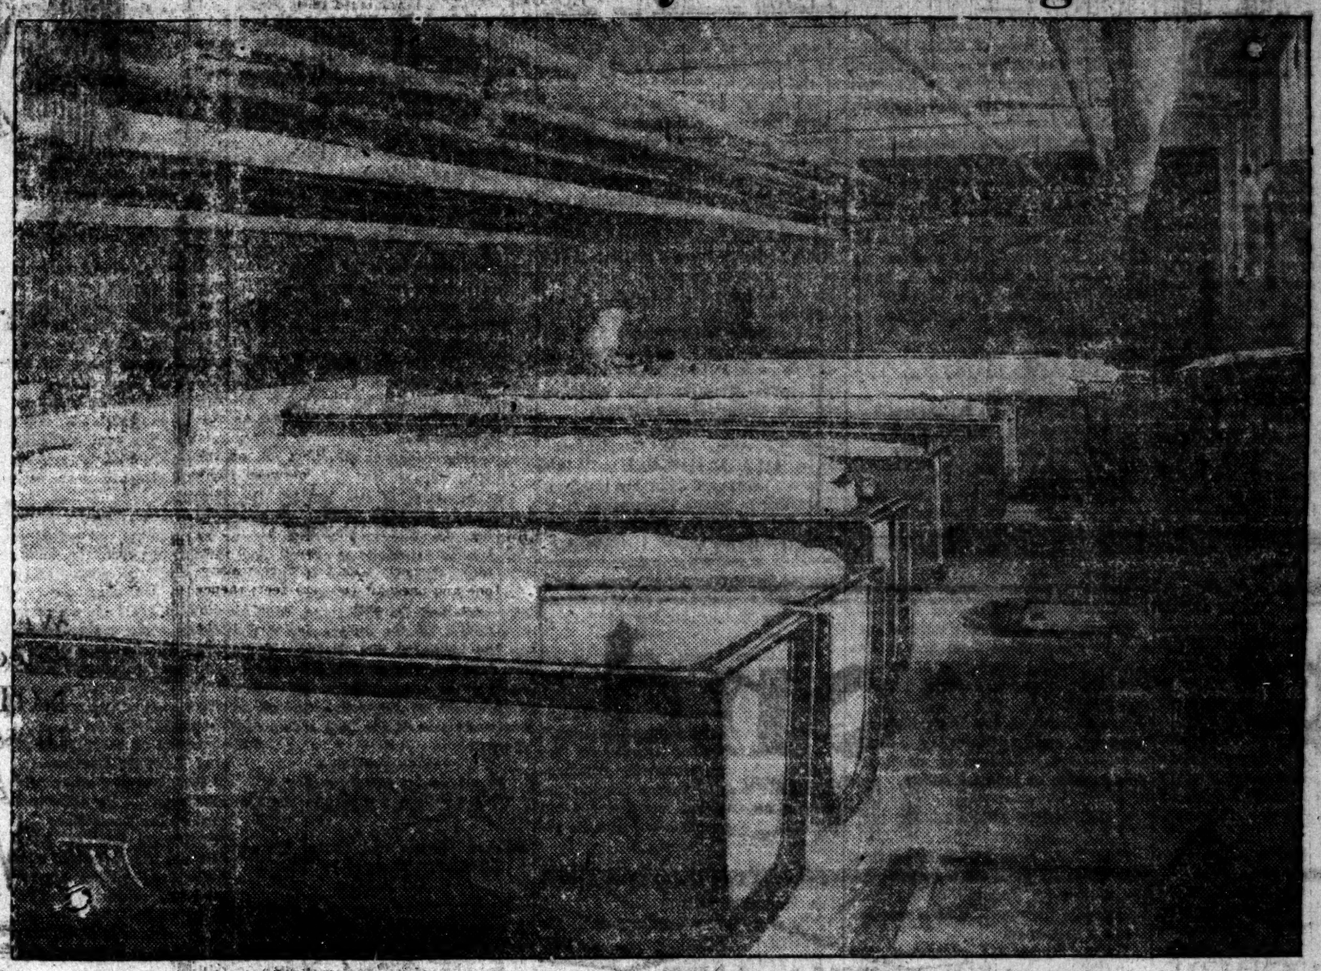
Care Attends the Fermenting Process of Corby Bread Doughs



Showing the great troughs, with their content of dough undergoing the fermenting process

When you realize that the bread doughs breathe, you will fully sense the importance of supplying them with proper air, and at carefully preserved temperature during the vital stages of fermentation. It cannot be done in the home; and it is not done in most bakeries, because they work by the rule of thumb rather than under the wise guidance of scientific principle. This extreme care and intelligent watchfulness not only insures the absolute purity of Corby Bread, (making sour bread an impossibility) but prevents the breaking down by ungoverned chemical action of the gluten (that tissue building element) which by the Corby patented dough-mixing process is developed to the 100 per cent maximum.

NEGRO PREACHER KILLED

Greenwood, S. C., June 24.—Because James H. Walker, a negro preacher stepped on his foot and then struck him in the face, Pope McCarthy, a white mill operative, shot and killed Walker at Ware Shoals, near here Monday, according to a statement made by McCarty to the sheriff when he surrendered.

EARTH TREMORS CONTINUE

Quake of Monday Night in Los Angeles, Did More Than $100.000 Worth of Damage

Los Angeles, Cal., June 24.—Earthquakes which started at 6:47 o'clock Monday night and continued intermittently throughout today caused property damage in Los Angeles county estimated at more than $100,000, three fourths of which was in Inglewood, 10 miles southwest of this city.

One death was due indirectly to the most severe of the shocks and several persons were lightly injured by falling debris.

POSSE RETAKES NEGRO

Easton, Md., June 24.—Isaiah Fountain, negro jail breaker convicted of assaulting 14 year old Bertha Simpson, who has been hiding in the woods two miles from Queen Anne, Md., was captured at four o'clock yesterday afternoon by a posse headed by Capt. Henry, of the Baltimore police.

DREAM OF TRAGEDY

Indianapolis, June 24.—Speechless from fright caused by a dream in which he thought he saw his wife and children mangled under an overturned automobile, Harry M. Jacobs, 25, of Pittsburgh, yesterday watched the national road for three touring cars.

In those cars are his wife, his children, his parents, and some friends.

Jacobs and his family planned an automobile tour from their home in Pittsburgh. Detained by business, Jacobs left in an automobile six hours behind the party. An accident caused him to take a train to Terre Haute, where he hoped to intercept the tourists.

Jacobs then stationed a man at the road leading into Terre Haute and came here to watch for the cars. Still speechless, he wrote his story for the police.

VOLSTEAD DEFEATED

Father of Dry Enforcement Law Beaten for Return to Congress

St. Paul, June 24.—Of all the Representatives in Congress from Minnesota who are candidates for renomination at the primary election Monday, only one went down to defeat. He is A. J. Volstead, Representative from the Seventh district, who sponsored the prohibition enforcement law which bears his name. He appears to be beaten by a large majority.

His opponent, O. J. Kvale, who, according to the latest figures, won the Republican nomination, is a preacher at Benson, whose candidacy was indorsed by the Non-partisan League. He is said to be a prohibitionist, but received the support of the wet element, greatly displeased with the 1-2 of 1 per cent alcoholic content definition of intoxicating liquors in the Volstead act.

The returns, covering 285 of the 375 precincts in the district, give Kvale a majority of 11,816. His majority has steadily increased with each succeeding report and there is little doubt he has won over Volstead by more than 1,000.

Tire Treads

Improved 25%

The latest Miller triumph is a super-grade tread. It excels the best rival treads today by an average of 25 per cent. This has been proved, under careful watch, by many road comparisons.

The Miller Tire mileage is the talk of the day. But these new-grade treads outwear the balance of the tire.

Not one Miller Tire, built with this new tread, has ever come back with the tread gone.

These treads do not vary. Every day the Miller tread stock is vulcanized and tested in the laboratory. It must prove up to these new standards before a tread is made.

Miller Cord Tires, in the factory tests, now average 15,000 miles. Miller Fabrics from 8,000 to 9,000 miles. And these factory tests are extreme.

Watch your mileage on one Miller Tire. Compare it with any other and it will win you. You owe that to yourself in view of Miller records.

VIRGINIA NEWS

William H. Saunders was elected president of the Southern Society of Washington, at its annual meeting Tuesday night. Mr. Saunders formerly lived in Virginia. He succeeds Dr. Clarence J. Owens, who has been president of the society for two years. Others elected were Daniel B. Henderson, vice president; William Dec Ravenuel, secretary; John Franklin Little, financial secretary; Charles W. Warden, treasurer;; Mrs. Milton W. Johnson, historian.

Declaring that they will no longer be responsible for the action of the members of the Street Carmen's Union in Richmond unless the wage scale paid the men is increased. C. G. Bookman and the executive committee of the union waited on Thos. S. Wheelright, president of the Virginia Railway and Power Company Tuesday to ask release from the yearly wage contract with the company. Mr. Wheelright refused to grant the request of the men. It was learned after the conference that members of the union held a meeting not long ago and voted to abrogate their contract and give the company 60 days' notice to increase their wages, or strike.

Oscar R. Phillips, aged 23, and unmarried, for 4 years past in the employ of the Southern Railway, was run over and killed by a train in a cut two miles north of Rockfish some time Monday night. His mangled body was found scattered along the track for a half mile. He had been assigned to watch the track in the cut, and it is presumed that he sat down upon the rails and fell asleep.

Merger of the Westmoreland and Commonwealth Clubs, of Richmond, has been effected. Announcement to this effect has been made by President George Bryan, of the Westmoreland, following a meeting which consumed the greater part of Monday night, when the vote on the proposition was polled in favor of the consolidation, 226 to 150. The new club will take the name of the Westmoreland and will build a $650,000 home on the site of the Commonwealth, Monroe and Franklin streets.

Orders have been issued by the Emergency Fleet Corporation through a Richmond representative, said to be a Mr. Andrews, for the salvaging of the South Richmond boiler plant and sale of its equipment in individual lots, according to authentic information. This property is valued at approximately one million dollars. The machinery was intended for use in the manufacture of Scotch marine boilers for the Newport News Shipbuilding and Drydock Company, but the conclusion of the war erased the need for the production and the plant has never been operated since its completion about a year ago.

Atlanta, June 24.—Nine of Georgia's twelve Representatives were marked for the discard Tuesday under the displeasure of the States' labor unions. The State Federation of Labor meeting Sunday condemned the record of Senator Hoke Smith, Representatives Upshaw, Crisp, Overstreet, Lee, Bell, Wright, Larsen and Vinson as being unfavorable to the welfare of labor. Support of the Esch-Cummins railroad law was the chief cause for complaint but in some cases other votes were criticised.

GETTING RID OF WOMEN

Washington, June 24.—Employes in Government offices in Washington are being dismissed by the hundred this week, in preparation for the reduced appropriations, which take effect with the new fiscal year.

By July 1 the number of employes here will be less than 90,000, compared to 96,000 on June 1, according to the estimate given at the office of the Civil Service Commission today.

A significant fact noted by the commission officials is that nearly all employes being dropped are young women who came to Washington as war workers. The result is that the proportion of women in the Government employ is decreasing rapidly.

A similar condition is reported in all places over the country where women were given employment. At the government during the war. At one time it was estimated that one-fifth of the 425,000 persons occupying places under civil service were women. Now the pre-war proportion of 1 woman to 10 men is being approached.

This change is taking place, notwithstanding the fact that te Civil Service Commission now includes a woman member, and that former rules discriminating against women in civil service examinations have been set aside.

"The principal reason is the Soldier Preference law, put into effect in March, 1919," is the explanation given.

Since that time approximately 60 per cent of the new employes of the government have obtained their places under the preference statute, which puts all former service men who pass examinations at the head of the employment registers.

TO OUR COAL TRADE

Under present conditions our receipts of domestic coal are limited and prices are constantly changing.

We will be glad to enter orders; deliver the coal as promptly as we can secure it, and bill it to our customers on the basis of cost to us plus our usual gross margin, and this will have to be our policy at this time as everything indicates great uncertainty in the coal trade.

Our customers can be assured that we will do everything possible to keep the price as low as we are able to, consistent with quality, weight and service, and we shall be glad to have you entrust the business to us on this basis.

This also applies to any orders we already have from our trade.

DYNAMITE

The man who sits on a box of dynamite smoking a pipe is invariably the man who has handled dynamite safely for so many years that he is callous to the danger.

Many a man has suffered for years from a chronic weakness of the Stomach, Liver or Kidneys and he doesn't think they are dangerous because he has put up with them so long. Chiropractic locates the cause of disease as pressure on spinal nerves at their exit between joints of the Backbone, Adjusting removes the pressure and the cause of disease, Health follows as a matter of course.

CONDITIONS IN ULSTER

Belfast, June 23.—An orgy of hate is sweeping this city. Past friends last week are now deadly enemies, seeking each other's lives. The whole of Ulster seems on the brink of civil war.

Sniping was resumed last night. A woman was killed by a sniper's bullet. The Unionists of Belfast are debating a plan to march on the Sinn Feiners in Londonderry.

Troops are guarding the Unionists premises last night. Sinn Feiners are sniping them from house tops. Bombs are freely used. Several buildings are burning.

From Londonderry the following telephone message was received:

"Rifles of the rattle gang [illegible] with a rifle or revolver is frantic to use it. Snipers from tops of buildings are blazing away at every suspected enemy. Barricades have been thrown up throughout the city. Riflemen are firing from behind bags."
